Good News

- All of the Blanket Flower and Black-Eyed Susan have come back fantastically!
- Baby bunny was hanging out for a little bit this morning.
- The birds are so happy here and having the time of their life!

Concerns

- One section of the Swamp Twin Flower in the front garden has completely died back and is now miserable.
 - Client says she waters 3x a week and that may be too much, although everywhere else where the Twin Flower is located is thriving.

Recommendations

- Next service the Blanket Flower needs to be dead headed.
- Restake the Yaupon Holly at front
